SEPTEMBER 2023

This Month in STEAM

The school year is off to a great start in STEAM class! We started the year learning about growth mindset and how to be a lifelong learner. In September, students will begin their Square!Art project. This is a project that Woodview students do every year where they create a piece of art which their families can then order on mugs, shirts, blankets, notebooks, and much more! The kids are always so excited for this project! Be on the lookout for more information about this in your child's backpack soon!

Sincerely, Mrs. Courier

This Month in Music

Music is off to a great start! As we continue in our new school year we are practicing our procedures and jumping into games with students. By next weekend I will be ordering recorders, so please if you would like to order one make sure to return the form next week. We will start learning recording mid-September. Other than that we have many activities to open the year to build a firm foundation and understanding of music, such as developing steady beat and learning about some music history.

Sincerely, Mrs. Rich

This Month in P.E.

We had a great first week back in PE! In the weeks ahead we will practice class procedures and games the students will play when they have a guest teacher. Next week we will start our mile practice, we will run the mile the week after Labor Day. I encourage students to bring a water bottle out with them for the mile.

This week we talked about appropriate footwear for PE, if possible, please have one pair of indoor active shoes and another pair for outside PE and recess. Not only does that help us keep the gym floor clean and prevent injuries but it is good practice to get us ready for the new gym floor we will be getting next fall. Please let me know if your student has any health concerns, I should be aware of.

I will post information on athletic opportunities on the Woodview Specials page, so if you have any team or sport activities you would like added please contact me.

Sincerely, Mrs. Oswald
